Fund Management

ADCB Asset Management Ltd (AAML), one of the major asset managers in the region, is owned by Abu Dhabi Commercial Bank, the second largest Bank in Abu Dhabi. AAML with over USD2 billion in asset under management provides full suite of financial services that include mutual funds, discretionary portfolio management, advisory and trading services. Dedicated team of investment strategists, fund managers, investment advisors and product specialists with global financial market experience help create value for AAML investors that include government, pension funds, family offices and high net worth individuals.

Fund

Investment Objective: The objective of the Sub-Fund is to achieve medium to long-term capital growth and a reasonable level of income by investing predominantly in units of open-ended funds (UCITS and other UCI's) and exchange traded funds including, where appropriate, other Sub-Funds of ADCB SICAV.

Investment Process: The Sub-Fund is actively managed. When constructing the Sub-Fund's portfolio, the Investment Manager will be guided by a composite of 65% Bloomberg Barclays Global Aggregate TR Hedged USD index, 20% MSCI ACWI NR USD Index and 15% HFRX Global Hedged Fund index. The investment strategy will restrict the extent to which the Sub-Fund's asset allocation may deviate from that of the composite to a maximum of 10% above or below the asset allocation weights of the composite. The Sub-Fund's investment universe is expected to overlap materially with the components of the composite.

Investment Parameters: The key investment parameters of the Fund are,

- The fund is SICAV UCITs compliant listed in Luxembourg, providing best global practices in administration and audit
- The fund provides daily liquidity
- The risk and return characteristics of the Sub-Fund will be driven mainly by a targeted long term strategic asset allocation of 65% in fixed income, 20% in equity and 15% in alternative asset classes. The investment restrictions and strategies which will be followed are such as to characterize this Sub-Fund as moderately low risk.
- There are no minimum or maximum percentages of assets that the Sub-Fund must invest in a specific asset class or underlying fund.
- The underlying funds invest in growth and value stocks of small, medium, and large market capitalization companies, fixed-income securities, global and regional (including those in emerging markets) securities, securities denominated in foreign currencies, investment companies (including index funds and ETFs), real estate securities, derivatives, and government and government sponsored securities.
- The underlying funds engage in derivative transactions to gain exposure to a variety of securities or asset classes or attempt to reduce risk.
